

August 14, 1976

National Register of Historic Places
Office of Archaeology and Historic Preservation
National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior
Washington D.C.

Gentlemen:

I am interested in nominating the Point Pinos Lighthouse, Pacific Grove, California, for the National Register of Historic Places. Previously the U.S. Coast Guard sent in incomplete forms dated as being received by you on December 13, 1973. These were returned to the Coast Guard, San Francisco, for more information but were never completed. My question is, may I as a party not connected with the U.S. Coast Guard complete the forms which they received in order to effect national registry status, or must I initiate a new series of paperwork?

Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours,

Vernal L. Yadon
Director

VLY:sf